Shalom and Blessings

This has been a wonderful year for Temple Shabbat Shalom as we watch our community grow and mature. As always we provide a needed service to our interfaith couples, who continue to meet and fall in love and have a strong desire to have spirituality at both wedding's and in their futures. We have also been involved with the blessing of many Baby Naming celebrations and Bar and Bat Mitzvahs. We are a local and global community network with congregation members who understand that everything truly begins as a family in the home.

We are also delighted to announce that now in addition to Cantor Cohen and Cantor Adler, who many of you have meet, we also have Rabbi Goldin in the Temple Shabbat Shalom Family.

We do hope that all of you have been reviewing the Newsletters and using the various Seders to enable you to easily add spirituality to all your Holidays and Festivals.

Included in this Newsletter is a Seder (order of the meal) which we recommend that you incorporate into your family's Thanksgiving Celebration this year.

Temple Shabbat Shalom once again needs your continued support so that we can continue to provide these services.

Your contributions are greatly appreciated. Kindly complete the form on page seven.

Happy Thanksgiving and Happy Chanukah,

Rabbi Aryeh and Karen Alpern

A THANKSGIVING PSALM (PSALM 136)

Give thanks to the Lord for kindness, for mercy endures forever.
Give thanks to the Unnamable, for mercy endures forever.
Give thanks to the Unfathomable, for mercy endures forever:
Whose miracles greet us each morning, for mercy endures forever;
Whose wonders flow past us each day, for mercy endures forever;
Whose light is brighter than the sun, for mercy endures forever;
Whose darkness is deeper than the night, for mercy endures forever;
Whose mind creates the whole universe, for mercy endures forever;
Who holds our lives in hand, for mercy endures forever;
Who heals the afflicted soul, for mercy endures forever;
Who makes the wretched rejoice, for mercy endures forever;
Who opens the hearts of the selfish, for mercy endures forever;
Who leads the lost spirit home, for mercy endures forever.
